

Learn English and Study Abroad at Arizona State University

Language learning is more than reading, writing, listening and speaking. At Global Launch, you will communicate in social and academic settings, learn American cultural customs, write academic papers, and give university-level presentations. When you complete our program, you will enter the American university or workforce with the confidence you need to stand out and succeed in any English-language setting.

English Language Immersion program

At Global Launch, you can choose to learn on-campus or online and still receive the same engaging and innovative experience Global Launch is known for.
