English for Graduate Admission course details

Global Launch's 8-week English for Graduate Admission course offers more than just language training. You will gain confidence to communicate in English, improve academic writing and learn from anywhere in the world. Completion of the course fulfills your English language proficiency requirement for admission into your intended graduate degree program at ASU.

Admission requirements

Success in the English for Graduate Admission online course requires at least a high-intermediate understanding of the English language. Interested applicants are encouraged to take Global Launch's free online placement test to determine their level of English proficiency before enrolling in the course.

Why Global Launch

Standardized tests like the TOEFL, IELTS and the Duolingo English Test only measure English proficiency. However, for you to successfully meet the academic demands of a top research university, you will need to understand and apply concepts such as critical thinking, research methodology, sourcing and citing.

Did you know?

Students who graduate from Global Launch earn a higher grade point average in their university classes than other first-time ASU international students.
